Ed Keil, the plumber, informs the Journal-Miner that he has finished laying a small section of the gas mains for the proposed gas plant which Mr. Porter, of Los Angeles, is promoting. The pipe laid was in the alley between DeMund's lumber yard and St. Joseph's academy.

Engine No. 12, which was attached to the freight train that went into the ditch near Peoria, a few days ago, was brought to the machine shops at Prescott last night. While the damage to the engine is not very great, it will take several days to dig the dirt off it and clean it up so that it can be placed in commission again.

The recent rich strike at Kingman has attracted considerable attention is evidenced by the number of people who have called at the Journal-Miner office to see the samples of the ore that were sent here by Capt. Brady. If there is anything on earth that will get people excited it is a gold strike.

The gentlemen who have been in this city for several days putting in message call boxes for the Postal Telegraph company, have almost completed their work and will leave for Albuquerque, N. M., the first of next week to put in a number of these calls for the company. They have placed about forty calls in this city.

Gov. Burch, of the S. F. P. and P. railroads, informed the Journal-Miner that the article recently published in a southern exchange in which there is only one place in Arizona where two different railroads cross, is a mistake. He says besides the place referred to in the article there is another place at Tempe, where the Phoenix and Eastern crosses the Maricopa and Phoenix.

J. M. Heck, who has some mining property in Mohave county, left for that place this morning. He will go to the scene of the recent gold strike and personally investigate the truth of the reports sent out. He is making arrangements to begin work on his property in the near future. Harry Heck, the well known piano man of this city, is also interested in the property.

Editor Rogers, of the Courier, has had one taste of seaside resorts and the germs of periodical rest have found their way into his system, and he is now given up to be a hopeless victim of California fever. Last winter he took a trip to the coast, and gave as his excuse that he had not had a rest for twenty years. Today he left for another trip to San Diego and this time he gives as his excuse that he don't propose to miss as much fun in the next twenty years as he has the past twenty. Mrs. Rogers has been in California for several weeks on account of her health, and she will probably return home with the Colonel.

The editor of the Journal-Miner was the guest yesterday afternoon of J. B. Hoeker, of the Fashion Village stable, in a half-hour ride to the target range behind a beautiful team of four black horses. The two Mexicans who were brought to Prescott from Seligman, on a commitment, about four weeks ago, applied for release on a writ of habeas corpus today and the writ was granted and the prisoners released. A defect in the commitment was the ground on which the writ was granted.

A crazy Chinaman was arrested in the Wellington saloon this morning. George Clark found him in the back room of the saloon holding a pow wow with an electric light and doing other things that as well regulated and well balanced son of the flower kingdom should not do, and an officer from the sheriff's office was called to take charge of him. It is said he has been in the asylum on two or three previous occasions. Too much pipe dream is thought to be the cause. He together with the fellow captured by Deputy Sheriff Thompson in the Yeager canyon yesterday, will have their examination before Acting Probate Judge J. H. Robinson, next week.

are no rules by which one can become a brilliant talker, everyone can develop what talent he may possess. There are certain considerations to be kept in mind in cultivating conversational powers. The requisites for agreeable conversation are dwelt upon in a paper in The Delinquent for September, which will be a distinct aid to any one wishing to improve his accomplishments in this regard.

Col. B. W. Leavelle, adjutant general of this territory, is engaged in making out checks to pay the national guard members that participated in quelling the recent riot at Tombstone. The private rates are said $1 per day for the time they were on duty and the officers are paid the same salaries as army and navy officers of the regular army. The pay of the militiamen amounts to about $2500 and the total expense to the territory will amount to about $3000.

Mrs. M. A. Lawler returned last night from her visit to Los Angeles. She made a trip to San Diego to visit B. T. Riggs an old time partner, of John and M. A. Lawler in the Hillside mine. Mr. Riggs who is now 85 years old is quite feeble, and his great desire now is to return to his country once more for a visit. He desired to be remembered to all of his old time friends. Mr. Riggs still owns valuable mining property in the Bradshaw mountains. During her visit there she placed the children of P. Farley in the school of the Sisters of the Holy Angel, in Los Angeles.

About nine o'clock this morning E. W. Richardson, the miller, lighted his gasoline stove on which the iron was heated and a few minutes later the lady who is working for him went to the stove and found the fire out. Mr. Richardson attempted to relight the stove when the flames shot up setting his clothing on fire, and threatened to take his life. He was quickly taken to the hospital where he is now lying. Mr. Richardson is a well known man in the community.

The sheriff's office was notified and recently Sheriff Roberts located his man at Santa Barbara, California. On August 8 he started for California, De Leon in the meantime having been taken into custody to await his arrival.

On reaching there the prisoner refused to return to Arizona without a requisition which necessitated Sheriff Roberts going to Sacramento to procure it, and which has delayed his return.

THE ENEMY OF LABOR.

A member of a union of organized labor, and one who is in hearty sympathy with labor unions has been taken from an exchange which expresses his sentiments on the question and which the Journal-Miner most heartily endorses:

"The greatest enemy of labor is the professional labor leader. He is as dangerous as the plutocrat. The capitalist and the professional labor leader are the two great enemies of the worker. The capitalist is the enemy of the worker because he wants to keep the worker poor and the professional labor leader is the enemy of the worker because he wants to keep the worker ignorant and divided."

FORMER PRISONER BARBER CHARGED

With Embezzling Savings of His Wife.

Located in Santa Barbara, California, and Is Expected Home With Sheriff Roberts.

Sheriff Roberts is expected home in a few days from California where he went for Charles De Leon, formerly of Jerome, who is charged with embezzling the savings of his wife, Mrs. De Leon, who was a barmaid in the big copper camp, and married a widow named Mrs. Brown, who had saved up a few hundred dollars for a rainy day for herself and two children. After their marriage De Leon suggested that the widow's savings be deposited in the bank in their joint names so that either could withdraw it. About the 25th of May De Leon told his wife that he was coming to Prescott with a view of purchasing a barber shop and asked if she would lend him the money in the bank in cash. She consented to do so and De Leon made his visit. He did not tarry long however, but took the first train for California. Some days after his departure, his wife, not hearing from him instituted an investigation and to her great surprise and sorrow discovered that the money was gone. She went to the bank and found that the money had been withdrawn. She carried white roses and maidenhair ferns, while her veil was caught with orange blossoms.

His sister, Miss Navarro Kautz, was the maid of honor, and carried a great cluster of red roses. She wore a gown of white mull, with much rare old lace, and a large black lace train.

Captain Read was attended by Lieutenant Ed Stanton, now stationed at Fort Thomas, and a grandson of the late Secretary of War Stanton. The ushers were Captains Barker and Sample. All the men in the bridal party were in full dress uniform and made a brilliant company with their clanking swords and the gleaming gold of their uniforms. Colonel Markbreit, Mrs. Kautz's brother was already at the altar and gave the bride away. Rev. Robert Nelson performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Kautz was in a handsome gown of coral net, trimmed elaborately in lace. The only people present were a few old friends of the bride's mother, Mrs. Markbreit, and a few friends of the bride's father, Mr. Markbreit, who is a well known man in the community.

After a wedding supper at the St. Nicholas, to which only the bride and groom and the relatives were invited, Captain and Mrs. Read left for Baton Rouge, La., where Captain Read has been appointed as inspector and commandant of cadets in the Louisiana State University.

Stevensville, Mont., Aug. 17.—Chances of Walter Jackson seeing another day is very slim. Ranchers are pouring into the town today, and the hundreds and all are armed. They take a look at the untold body of the boy whom Jackson is accused of murdering and then move on to Hamilton where the prisoner is confined. Twenty armed deputies guard the jail and the sheriff is on duty. The boy is said to be a demonstration.
